

Housing & Belonging with Paul Susi

The Brooklyn Action Corps invites you to join us for a free, virtual discussion about housing and houselessness.

When

Monday, September 13th @ 6pm via Zoom

Topics of houselessness, housing, and community are active in Brooklyn and throughout Portland. We invite you to this conversation where we will be exploring the history of houselessness in Portland and creating space for deeper questions about what it means to belong.

We expect this event to last between 1 ½ to 2 hours.

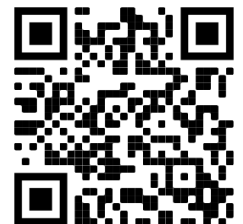

Scan the QR code to RSVP via our Google form or email us!

Paul Susi

is a theater artist who was born and raised in Portland, OR. He has a background in social services, education, community activism and spent five years managing shelters with Transition Projects.

If you would like to learn more about Paul, please visit his website:
www.paulsusi.wordpress.com

<https://bit.ly/bac-housing>

visit brooklyn-neighborhood.org

follow us @brooklynneighborhoodpdx

